

Pam's out on a mission

Pam Beale, who has set up Mission Accomplished

PEOPLE trying to juggle their hectic lifestyles are being given a helping hand by a Lichfield woman.

Pam Beale has set up Mission Accomplished to take care of all little tasks that people often do not have time to do – from cleaning out the kitchen cupboards to organising a party.

Mrs Beale, aged 38, of Birmingham Road, said: "In trying to split our valuable time between work, family and leisure, we all end up with lists of things to do which we want sorting and feel guilty about not dealing with properly.

"Mission Accomplished can take control and make sure those tasks are completed."

Mrs Beale's services are available to businesses as well as individuals, and she is happy to help plan events for companies.

Rates are set at £20 per hour or negotiable blocks of time for bigger jobs.

Anyone wanting to use Mission Accomplished's services should call Mrs Beale on 01543 250953.

Let someone else do the chores for your mother

THE CHRONICLE has teamed up with a Lichfield lifestyle management to offer a Mother's Day prize with a difference.

Mother's Day is this Sunday (March 6) and we are offering a gift of time to one lucky winner.

Mission Accomplished, run by Pam Beale, will give two hours to the winner which can be used to sort out any task which a busy mum might not have the time to get round to.

It could be sorting out the kitchen cupboards, defrosting the freezer, doing some research on holiday destinations or finding someone a gardener.

To win the gift of time explain, in not more than 15 words, why your mum deserves to get this prize.

Send entries with name, address and postcode by Wednesday (March 9) to: Lichfield and Burntwood Chronicle, 69 Upper St John Street, Lichfield, WS14 9DT or Cannock & Rugeley Chronicle, Queen Square, Cannock, Staffs WS11 3EA.

For more information on Mission Accomplished contact Pam on 01543 250953.
